This article is about the witcher in The Hexer. For the Redanian elf, see Chireadan.

Chireadan was a hot-headed witcher tasked with hunting renegades from his order.

Biography

After Gwidon Falwick and Herbolth accused Geralt for the death of Dermot Marranga before the Council of Witchers, Chireadan was sent to capture or kill the White Wolf.

Geralt met him on his way to Cintra from the Temple of Melitele in Ellander and tried to talk his younger peer out of the idea, arguing that Gwidon and Dermot became paid murderers and criminals, and that he should go to Aedd Gynvael to talk with the sorcerer Istredd who could confirm Geralt's version. Chireadan, however, having heard numerous tales about Geralt-the-never-defeated, inisted on a duel, wanting to try himself. Having lost the fight with the legendary witcher, Chireadan agreed to go and meet Istredd.
